

PLEDGE OF CIVILITY

I pledge to be courteous in behavior and speech.

I pledge to communicate with respect, restraint and reasonability.

I pledge to use the skills of listening, tolerance, and respect when asserting my views even when someone does not agree with me.

I pledge to use the skills of tolerance when asserting my views and pledge not to tear down the views of others no matter how unpleasant or different they might seem.

I pledge to use civil nonverbal tone of voice in all discourse.

I pledge to use civil nonverbal expressions and cues in all discourse.

I pledge to refrain from cyber bullying and will use social media responsibly.

I pledge to teach those who I come into contact with about the benefits of civil discourse.

I pledge to have a respect for all points of view.

I pledge that all persons I come into contact with will be given an opportunity to express opinions openly without attacks.

I pledge to model civil behavior in my daily life.

I pledge to uphold high ethical standards, and to hold others and myself to this civility pledge.
